The Grant of Development Loans to licensed Salt Manufacturers Rules, 1959

G.S.R. 419.—In exercise of the powers conferred by section 6 of the Salt Cess Act, 1953 (49 of 1953), the Central Government hereby makes the following rules, namely:—

1. Short title and commencement.—(1) These rules may be called the Grant of Loans to licensed Salt Manufacturers Rules, 1959.

(2) They shall come into force at once.

2. Definitions.—In these rules, unless the context otherwise requires,—

- (a) "Act" means the Salt Cess Act, 1953 (49 of 1953);
- (b) "Central Advisory Board" means the Central Advisory Board for Salt constituted by the Government of India from time to time;
- (c) "form" means a form annexed to these rules;
- (d) "Region" means the Bombay Region, the Calcutta Region, the Madras Region, and the Rajputana Salt Sources Region;
- (e) "Regional Advisory Board" means the Regional Advisory Board for Salt constituted by the Government of India from time to time;
- (f) "Salt Commissioner" means the Salt Commissioner to the Government of India;
- (g) "Salt manufacturer" means a person duly licensed for manufacturing salt under the Central Excise and Salt Act, 1944 and the Rules made thereunder.

3. Granting of loans to salt manufacturers.—Out of the proceeds of the cess levied and collected on salt under the Act, loans may be granted to salt manufacturers for—

- (i) establishing salt factories;
- (ii) expanding salt factories;
- (iii) effecting improvement in the supply (of brine to salt factories or effecting such other improvement in such factories, including making of additions and alterations thereto, as are considered necessary by the Salt Commissioner;
- (iv) improving means of transport in salt factories, such as providing railway sidings, constructing jetties, roads and the like;
- (v) the supply of water to the labourers engaged in salt factories.

4. Procedure for submitting applications for loan.—(1) Any salt manufacturer desiring a loan in respect of any salt factory shall make an application in form A to the Deputy Salt Commissioner in charge of the Region in which the salt factory is situate or is proposed to be established. Such application shall be accompanied by plans or specifications or both indicating details of the Works to be executed, machinery to be purchased and also an estimate of the cost involved.

(2) If an application is received from any company as defined in the Companies Act, 1956 (1 of 1956), or any cooperative society registered under any law for the time being in force, such application shall also be accompanied by the following documents, namely:—

- (a) an authenticated copy of the certificate of incorporation or certificate of registration granted to the company or society, as the case may be;
- (b) an authenticated copy of the balance sheet and profit and loss account of the company or society for the year immediately preceding the date on which the application for loan is made.

5. Scrutiny and disposal of application.—(1) The Deputy Salt Commissioner shall on receipt of any application made under rule 4, make such inquiries as he considers necessary for verifying the correctness of the particulars mentioned in the application and shall forward such application to the Salt Commissioner along with his report.

(2) The Salt Commissioner on receipt of the report under sub-rule (1) shall, after consulting the Regional Advisory Board concerned and the Central Advisory Board make his recommendations to the Central Government and that Government may grant loan for such amount as it thinks fit or make such other order as appears to it to be necessary in the circumstances of the case. Provided that consultation with the Regional and Central Advisory Boards may be dispensed with if the Salt Commissioner is of opinion that circumstances have arisen with respect to any application or class of applications which render it necessary to make such recommendation without consultation with such Boards, but in such a case, the Salt Commissioner shall inform the Boards at the next meeting of the action taken by him.

6. Quantum of loan to be given to salt manufactures.—The amount of the loan to be granted to a salt manufacturer under these rules shall be ordinarily restricted to one half of the market value of the assets which the salt manufacturer proposes to offer as security for loan:

Provided that the amount of loan granted to any salt manufacturer shall not exceed fifty thousand rupees.

7. Interest on loan and payment of such interest.—(1) Simple interest at such rate as may be fixed by the Central Government shall be charged on the day to day balance outstanding on the loan account. Interest on loans shall accrue from the date of disbursement of the loan and where the loan is disbursed in instalments, interest shall accrue on each instalment from the date of its disbursement.

(2) The interest calculated in accordance with sub-rule (1) shall be paid before the 31st March every year.

8. Execution of agreement and mortgage bond.—Every salt manufacturer to whom loan is granted under these rules shall execute an agreement in form (B) and a mortgage deed in form (C) in favour of the President of India.

9. Repayment of loan.—The loan shall be repaid in such number of equal yearly instalments as may be fixed in the agreement to be executed by the borrower in form B. Provided that the number of instalments shall be so fixed as not to extend the period of repayment beyond ten years from the date of disbursement of the loan.

10. Rights of Central Government in case of default.—(1) If at any time during the currency of the loan the Salt Commissioner is satisfied that the loan is not being used for the specific purpose for which it was granted, or where any salt manufacturer to whom any loan has been granted makes any default in the repayment of the loan or any instalment thereof or in repayment of interest, the Salt Commissioner may make a report to the Central Government accordingly and the Central Government shall have the right to recover the full amount of the loan or the unpaid balance thereof together with the interest accrued on such loan at once.

(2) If any salt manufacturer to whom any loan has been granted under these rules for establishing a salt factory or for purchasing machinery or other equipment for such factory or for effecting other improvements to his salt factory, fails to establish the salt factory or purchase machinery or other equipment for his factory or effect improvements thereto within the time specified therefor or within such extended time as the Central Government may think fit to grant in any case, the Central Government shall have the right to recover the full amount of the loan or unpaid balance thereof together with interest accrued on such loan at once.

2. The Mortgagor doth hereby covenant with the Mortgagee as follows, that is to say—

- (a) The Mortgagor will during the subsistence of this security pay all revenue, cesses, taxes, rates, impositions, rents, or other public charges that are now payable or may hereafter be payable in respect of the said messuages, tenement, land, hereditament and premises and shall also at his own cost, charges, and expenses keep and maintain all buildings, structures, sheds and erections, godowns etc., on the said mortgaged premises or any part or parts thereof in good and substantial repairs.
- (b) That the Mortgagor shall permit the Mortgagee, his agents and officers and all his authorised representatives at all reasonable time to enter upon the mortgaged premises or any part thereof and to inspect and to examine the said premises while in the course of realignment or otherwise and shall furnish on demand any statement report and record as may be required by the Mortgagee.
- (c) The Mortgagor shall keep the said mortgaged premises insured against fire in the sum of Rs. with an Insurance Company of repute and shall duly and punctually pay all premium in respect of such policy.
- (d) During the subsistence of this security the Mortgagor shall not grant any lease or create any other mortgage charge or otherwise encumber the said premises or any portion thereof without the written consent of the Mortgagee.
- (e) That the Mortgagor has on itself good right, full power and absolute authority to grant, convey, transfer, assure, and assign the said messuage, tenement, land, hereditament and premises unto the Mortgagee in manner aforesaid.
- (f) That if default shall be made in the payment of the said principal sum of Rs. or any part thereof or any interest due thereon on the day on which the same respectively ought to be paid it shall be lawful for the Mortgagee to enter into and take possession of the said messuages, tenement, land, hereditament and premises and thenceforth to hold and to enjoy and to receive rents, issues, and profits thereof without any interruption, claim or demand whatsoever.
- (g) That the Mortgagor and every person having or claiming any estate right, title, interest, claim or demand into or in respect of the said mortgaged premises will at all times until fore-closure or sale at the cost of the Mortgagor and afterwards of the person or persons requiring same execute and do every such assurances and things for further and more perfectly assuring the said mortgaged premises to the Mortgagee as shall be reasonably required by him.

3. Provided further and it is hereby agreed and declared as follows:

- (a) That the Mortgagor shall duly and regularly on the dates hereinbefore reserved for payment pay to the Mortgagee interest for the principal sum for the time being owing upon this security at the rate per cent per annum and that such interest at the rate of per cent per annum shall not be at any time in arrear and if the Mortgagor shall at all times perform and observe all the covenants herein expressed or implied and on his part to be performed and observed then the Mortgagee shall accept interest for the principal sum for the time being due and owing at the rate of per cent per annum in lieu of per cent per annum as is hereinbefore stipulated, PROVIDED HOWEVER that in the event of any suit being filed or any action taken by the Mortgagee for recovery of the principal sum and interest hereby secured provision hereinbefore contained for reduction of interest shall cease to operate.
- (b) That if default shall at any time be made by the Mortgagor in paying the revenue, rents, taxes and other public charges and the insurance premium in respect of mortgaged premises or if the Mortgagor shall make any default in payment of any interest on the principal sum for the time being due or commit any breach of any covenant herein contained, then and in such case the whole mortgage debt for the time being outstanding shall at once become payable notwithstanding any stipulation for payment of the principal sum herein contained and it shall be lawful for the Mortgagee either to take proceedings to realise the money hereby secured notwithstanding anything to contrary hereinbefore contained or to enter into possession of the mortgage premises without being accountable for responsible as a mortgagee in possession and thenceforth to hold, enjoy and receive the rents, issues and profits thereof without any interruption claim or demand whatsoever by the Mortgagor or anyone claiming through, under or on trust for him.

- (c) If at any time during the currency of this security the Government through the Salt Commissioner is satisfied (in which case the opinion of the Salt Commissioner shall be final) that the loan is not being applied for the specific purposes for which it was granted or that its recovery is jeopardised by the mismanagement of the mortgagor of its affairs, or if the Mortgagor commits any breach of the terms and conditions hereof or of the said rules under which the grant is being made, the Mortgagee shall be at liberty to recover at once the whole principal sum and interest then outstanding and remaining unpaid.
- (d) If default is at any time made by the Mortgagor to pay the principal sum and/or the interest payable it shall be lawful for the mortgagee to enter into and take possession of all the stocks of salt in the factory belonging to the Mortgagor and to sell and dispose of the said stocks of salt in such manner as the Mortgagee shall deem fit either by public auction or by private contract and to retain all the sums payable to the Mortgagee under these presents together with all costs, charges and expenses incurred by the Mortgagee in or for the recovery thereof and to pay the surplus, if any to the Mortgagor.
- (e) That if any proceedings be taken by the Mortgagee for the realisation of the amount hereby secured the Mortgagor will consent to a nominee of the Mortgagee to be appointed as Receiver of the mortgaged premises and of the stocks of salt hereby charged and that if the said mortgaged premises or any portion thereof shall at any time be requisitioned or acquired as provided under the law the Mortgagee shall be entitled to receive the whole of the compensation payable in connection therewith and to apply the same or a sufficient portion thereof towards the payment of money due under these presents and that all proceedings for ascertainment or apportionment of the compensation payable for the said premises shall be conducted by the Mortgagee at the risk and expense of the Mortgagor and the Mortgagor shall on demand repay to the Mortgagee all such costs, charges and expenses together with interest thereon at the rate of per cent per annum and the same shall constitute a charge upon the premises hereby secured.
- (f) Notwithstanding anything contained herein all the rules and conditions of the Grant of Development Loans to Salt Manufacturers Rules, 1959 shall apply in connection with this Loan in favour of the Mortgagor.

(Give full details.)

In witness whereof the Mortgagor has set his hand the day and year first above written.

Signed by the Mortgagor above named in the presence of;

New Delhi, the 31st March 1959

G.S.R. 422.—In exercise of the powers conferred by sub-section (1) of Section 6 of the Indian Ports Act 1908 (15 of 1908), the Central Government hereby makes the following amendment to the Port of Kandla Petroleum Rules,

1955, the same having been previously published as required by sub-section (2) of the said Section, namely:—

Amendment

In the said rules, in Part I, for rule 6, the following rule shall be substituted, namely:—

'Bunkering of vessels with fuel oil in the Port by means of Port's Service Pipe Lines, cargo boats, tank wagons or tank vehicles will be permitted subject to the conditions specified below:—

- (a) the cargo boats used for bunkering shall conform to the specifications in appendix 'B' to these Rules and have been approved and licensed by the Deputy Conservator under the Kandla Port Harbour Craft Rules, as may be in force from time to time;
- (b) the tank wagons and tank vehicles used for bunkering shall conform to Petroleum Rules 1937 and their type be approved in writing by the Chief Inspector of Explosives, New Delhi;
- (c) during all such times as any vessel is receiving fuel oil into her bunkers, the Master or First Mate of such vessel shall be present on board; it shall be his duty to see that the conditions specified in this rule are complied with and that all reasonable precautions for safety are observed and taken;
- (d) a ship's officer shall be on watch and an attendant shall be stationed alongside the flexible connection pipe while bunkering is in progress;
- (e) (i) officers in charge of the vessel which receives fuel oil for bunkering shall be responsible for seeing that all valves in vessel's tank or connection are properly regulated to receive the fuel oil and due warning shall always be given to suppliers by the Ship's Officer before any valves are closed to prevent the possibility of a sudden increase in pressure which may cause a burst in the flexible pipe or elsewhere and result in a consequent leakage of oil;
- (ii) master, owners and agents of vessels which receive fuel oil for bunkering and suppliers shall be jointly and severally responsible for seeing that bunkering operations are conducted with perfect cleanliness and in an orderly manner and any damage to property belonging to or in possession of the Port resulting from neglect of any precautions shall render them liable for the same;
- (iii) the master, owners or agents of the vessel receiving fuel oil shall also be liable for any such damage whatsoever if caused by negligence or defect or failure of apparatus or appliances belonging to the vessel;
- (iv) before bunkering commences, the vessel's attendant shall see that the telephone connection to the oil company's installation is in perfect working order;
- (v) an attendant shall be on duty at the pump throughout the time of bunkering;
- (f) (i) suppliers of fuel oil for bunkering shall be liable for any damage whatsoever caused to the cargo or property belonging to or in charge of the Port by any leakage of such petroleum due to or arising from negligence or any defect in or failure of apparatus or appliances belonging to the suppliers;
- (ii) suppliers of fuel oil shall be responsible for seeing that all flexible pipes used for bunkering vessels are tested to a pressure of 30 lbs. per square inch before actual operations commence, and that all joints are oiltight, that when flexible pipes are dismantled, any unavoidable spillage on the quay shall be properly cleaned up with sand;
- (iii) no bunkering shall be commenced until the supplier of fuel oil has delivered to the Port authorities a certificate to the effect that all flexible pipes to be used in the operation have been tested as required by sub-clause (ii) above;
- (g) no cargo other than steel plates, iron rails and similar goods unaffected by oil shall be allowed on the wharf within 50 feet of the oil stand pipes, tank wagons, tank vehicles or tank carts and shed doors immediately behind them shall be kept closed while bunkering is in progress;

- (h) the use of tank carts will only be permitted in cases of emergency after obtaining special sanction from the Deputy Conservator or any other Port officer authorised by him in writing;
- (i) no smoking, cooking, naked lights or forges shall be allowed in the cargo boat or on the deck of the vessel while bunkering is in progress;
- (j) a suitable gutter or other contrivance shall be placed under the connecting service pipe to prevent any oil or oily water from leaking on the wharf or into the Port;
- (k) the bilges of an oil cargo boat shall not be pumped when such cargo boat is in any confined waters or is alongside any bulk oil ship or tug;
- (l) the cargo boat shall carry an ample supply of buckets of sand;
- (m) no bunker shall be commenced unless a sand cart containing 15 c.ft. of sand is on the spot of the supply pipe;
- (n) at least two hours notice in writing shall be given by the suppliers to the Deputy Conservator before bunkering is commenced".
